Spelling (see appendix 1)
Pupils should be taught to:
spell:

- words containing each of the 40+ phonemes already taught
- common exception words
- the days of the week
- name the letters of the alphabet:

Pupils should be taught:

- naming the letters of the alphabet in order
- using letter names to distinguish between alternative spellings of the same sound
- add prefixes and suffixes:
- using the spelling rule for adding -s or -es as the plural marker for nouns and the third person singular marker for verbs
- using the prefix un-
- using -ing, -ed, -er and -est where no change is needed in the spelling of root words (e.g. helping, helped, helper, eating, quicker, quickest)
- apply simple spelling rules and guidelines, as listed in Appendix 1
- write from memory simple sentences dictated by the teacher that include words taught so far.

Spellings should be corrected as seen in the teacher handbook.

Children should be given weekly spellings to learn based on their phase or stage.

Composition

Pupils should be taught:
Pupils should be taught to:

- write sentences by:
- saying out loud what they are going to write about
- composing a sentence orally before writing it
- sequencing sentences to form short narratives
- re-reading what they have written to check that it makes sense
- discuss what they have written with the teacher or other pupils
- read aloud their writing clearly enough to be heard by their peers and the teacher.

Vocabulary, Grammar and Punctuation

Pupils should be taught to:

- develop their understanding of the concepts set out in Appendix 2 by:
- leaving spaces between words
- joining words and joining sentences using and
- beginning to punctuate sentences using a capital letter and a full stop, question mark or exclamation mark
- using a capital letter for names of people, places, the days of the week, and the personal pronoun 'I'
- learning the grammar in column 1 in year 1 in Appendix 2
- use the grammatical terminology in Appendix 2 in discussing their writing.

Handwriting

Pupils should be taught to:

- sit correctly at a table, holding a pencil comfortably and correctly
- begin to form lower-case letters in the correct direction, starting and finishing in the right place. All letters to end with joining tail.
- Leading line (starting from the line) should be taught to more able writers when appropriate.
- form capital letters
- form digits 0-9
- understand which letters belong to which handwriting 'families' (i.e. letters that are formed in similar ways) and to practise these.
- Digraphs/trigraphs taught in joined up handwriting.

Year 3

Spoken language

Pupils should be taught to:

- listen and respond appropriately to adults and their peers
- ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and build vocabulary and knowledge
- articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions
- give well-structured descriptions and explanations
- maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments
- use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas
- speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard English
- participate in discussions, presentations, performances and debates
- gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s)
- consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others
- select and use appropriate registers for effective communication.

Children move from experiencing and participating in informal talk to formal talk during their time in Netherleigh and Rossefield.

Children in Year 3 should be involved in:

- 'playground talk'
- Paired and group talk
- Speaking to teacher and other adults
- Listening and responding to others
- Oral rehearsal for writing
- Learning to talk clearly in front of large groups
- Giving feedback to others.
- Formal oral presentations
- Developing deeper and richer vocabulary

Spelling (see Appendix 1)

Pupils should be taught to:

- use further prefixes and suffixes and understand the guidelines for adding them
- spell some words with 'silent' letters, e.g. knight, psalm, solemn
- continue to distinguish between homophones and other words which are often confused
- use knowledge of morphology and etymology in spelling and understand that the spelling of some words needs to be learnt specifically, as listed in Appendix 1
- use dictionaries to check the spelling and meaning of words
- use the first three or four letters of a word to check spelling, meaning or both of these in a dictionary
- use a thesaurus.

Vocabulary, Grammar and punctuation

Pupils should be taught to:

develop their understanding of the concepts set out in Appendix 2 by:

- recognising vocabulary and structures that are appropriate for formal speech and writing, including subjunctive forms
- using passive verbs to affect the presentation of information in a sentence
- using the perfect forms of verbs to mark relationships of time and cause
- using expanded noun phrases to convey complicated information concisely
- using modal verbs or adverbs to indicate degrees of possibility using relative clauses beginning with who, which, where, when, whose, that or with an implied (i.e. omitted) relative pronoun
- learning the grammar for years 5 and 6 in Appendix 2
- indicate grammatical and other features by:
 - using commas to clarify meaning or avoid ambiguity in writing
 - using hyphens to avoid ambiguity
 - using brackets, dashes or commas to indicate parenthesis
 - using semi-colons, colons or dashes to mark boundaries between independent clauses
 - using a colon to introduce a list
 - punctuating bullet points consistently
- use and understand the grammatical terminology in Appendix 2 accurately and appropriately in discussing their writing and reading.

Our expectations:

There should be an emphasis on children enjoying and understanding language and use this to support their writing. The children should be able to write their ideas down quickly and be able to take notes.

Composition

Pupils should be taught to:

- plan their writing by:
- identifying the audience for and purpose of the writing, selecting the appropriate form and using other similar writing as models for their own
- noting and developing initial ideas, drawing on reading and research where necessary
- in writing narratives, considering how authors have developed characters and settings in what they have read, listened to or seen performed draft and write by:

- selecting appropriate grammar and vocabulary, understanding how such choices can change and enhance meaning
- in narratives, describing settings, characters and atmosphere and integrating dialogue to convey character and advance the action
- précising longer passages
- using a wide range of devices to build cohesion within and across paragraphs
- using further organisational and presentational devices to structure text and to guide the reader (e.g. headings, bullet points, underlining)

evaluate and edit by:

- assessing the effectiveness of their own and others' writing
- proposing changes to vocabulary, grammar and punctuation to enhance effects and clarify meaning
- ensuring the consistent and correct use of tense throughout a piece of writing
- ensuring correct subject and verb agreement when using singular and plural, distinguishing between the language of speech and writing and choosing the appropriate register
- proof-read for spelling and punctuation errors
- perform their own compositions, using appropriate intonation, volume, and movement so that meaning is clear.

Handwriting and presentation

Pupils should be taught to:

- write legibly, fluently and with increasing speed
- choosing the writing implement that is best suited for a task (e.g. quick notes, letters).

Year 6

Spoken Language

Pupils should be taught to:

- listen and respond appropriately to adults and their peers
- ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and build vocabulary and knowledge
- articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions
- give well-structured descriptions and explanations
- maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments
- use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas
- speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard English
- participate in discussions, presentations, performances and debates
- gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s)
- consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others
- select and use appropriate registers for effective communication.

Children move from experiencing and participating in informal talk to formal talk during their time in Netherleigh and Rossefield.

Children in Year 4 should be involved in:

- 'playground talk'
- Paired and group talk
- Speaking to teacher and other adults
- Listening and responding to others
- Oral rehearsal for writing
- Learning to talk clearly in front of large groups
- Giving feedback to others.
- Formal oral presentations
- Developing deeper and richer vocabulary
- Discussing abstract concepts

Reading

Word Reading	Comprehension
Pupils should be taught to: apply their growing knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes (morphology and etymology), as listed in Appendix 1, both to read aloud and to understand the meaning of new words that they meet. Our expectations: Children should read widely and frequently, outside as well as in school for pleasure and for information. They should be able to read silently. Their reading should be sufficiently fluent and effortless for them to manage the general demands of Year 7, across all subjects.	Pupils should be taught to: maintain positive attitudes to reading and understanding of what they read by: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• continuing to read and discuss an increasingly wide range of fiction, poetry, plays, non-fiction and reference books or textbooks• reading books that are structured in different ways and reading for a range of purposes• increasing their familiarity with a wide range of books, including myths, legends and traditional stories, modern fiction, fiction from our literary heritage, and books from other cultures and traditions• recommending books that they have read to their peers, giving reasons for their choices• identifying and discussing themes and conventions in and across a wide range of writing• making comparisons within and across books• learning a wider range of poetry by heart• preparing poems and plays to read aloud and to perform, showing understanding through intonation, tone and volume so that the meaning is clear to an audience understand what they read by: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• checking that the book makes sense to them, discussing their understanding and exploring the meaning of words in context• asking questions to improve their understanding• drawing inferences such as inferring characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions, and justifying inferences with evidence• predicting what might happen from details stated and implied• summarising the main ideas drawn from more than one paragraph, identifying key details that support the main ideas• identifying how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning• discuss and evaluate how authors use language, including figurative language, considering the impact on the reader• distinguish between statements of fact and opinion• retrieve, record and present information from non-fiction• participate in discussions about books that are read to them and those they can read for themselves, building on their own and others' ideas and challenging views courteously• explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, including through formal presentations and debates, maintaining a focus on the topic and using notes where necessary provide reasoned justifications for their views.

Writing

Transcription

Spelling (see Appendix 1)

Pupils should be taught to:

- use further prefixes and suffixes and understand the guidelines for adding them
- spell some words with 'silent' letters, e.g. knight, psalm, solemn
- continue to distinguish between homophones and other words which are often confused
- use knowledge of morphology and etymology in spelling and understand that the spelling of some words needs to be learnt specifically, as listed in Appendix 1
- use dictionaries to check the spelling and meaning of words
- use the first three or four letters of a word to check spelling, meaning or both of these in a dictionary
- use a thesaurus.

Vocabulary, Grammar and punctuation

Pupils should be taught to:

- develop their understanding of the concepts set out in Appendix 2 by:
- recognising vocabulary and structures that are appropriate for formal speech and writing, including subjunctive forms
- using passive verbs to affect the presentation of information in a sentence
- using the perfect form of verbs to mark relationships of time and cause
- using expanded noun phrases to convey complicated information concisely
- using modal verbs or adverbs to indicate degrees of possibility using relative clauses beginning with who, which, where, when, whose, that or with an implied (i.e. omitted) relative pronoun
- learning the grammar in column for years 5 and 6 in Appendix 2
- indicate grammatical and other features by:
- using commas to clarify meaning or avoid ambiguity in writing
- using hyphens to avoid ambiguity
- using brackets, dashes or commas to indicate parenthesis
- using semi-colons, colons or dashes to mark boundaries between independent clauses
- using a colon to introduce a list
- punctuating bullet points consistently
- use and understand the grammatical terminology in Appendix 2 accurately and appropriately in discussing their writing and reading.

Our Expectations:

The children should be able to reflect their understanding of their audience for, and purpose of their writing by selecting appropriate vocabulary and grammar. The children should be able to consciously control the structure of their sentences.
